

Please do not take any action that would diminish Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. I cherish the small windows of time I can spend at home with my family and I don't want to waste it on junk phone calls. Since being on Indiana's "no-call" list, these unwanted interruptions to our evening meals and other activities have been drastically reduced, from 2 or 3 per day down to 1 or 2 per week.

The Indiana "no-call" list is completely voluntary. Those who wish to receive telemarketing calls, can continue to do so at their discretion. On the other hand, for those of us who are making an effort to simplify and prioritize our increasingly complex lives, the Indiana Telephone Privacy law is a welcome partner.
